FROM THE DIRECTOR'S SHELF

Engaging Community. Educating Minds. Enriching Lives.

These three statements speak to our purpose and are at the center of our new 2021-2026 Strategic Plan. This plan is the product of an 18-month process that considered community and staff input received through a survey, focus groups and listening sessions, an environmental scan of trends across public libraries, and the current and projected needs of our community. The resulting document highlights the library's focus on community and provides a framework for the library to deliver equitable access to services across Henderson County.

Our new mission statement embodies who we are and what we strive to do: The Henderson County Public Libraries engage the community through experiences and services that educate minds and enrich lives.

Our core values reflect the passion and commitment of staff across all locations to provide the highest level of collections, programs, and services for all Henderson County residents:

- Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
- Collaboration and Creativity
- Innovation
- Professional Excellence and Integrity
- Lifelong Learning and Literacy

Through new partnerships and initiatives, diverse collections, and focused programming this plan ensures The Library will strengthen its role as an instrumental community asset.

- Trina Rushing, Library Director

SPOT LIGHT ON NEW STAFF

Elizabeth Bailey, Branch Assistant

Elizabeth Bailey has recently joined us as a library assistant for the Etowah, Mills River, and Fletcher libraries. She is a recent graduate of the history MA program at Appalachian State University, and was born and raised in Transylvania County, NC. Elizabeth has always had a love for reading, which led her to work seasonally as a library page for Transylvania County Library in high school and college. Elizabeth's interests include spending too much money on books, visiting any history museum she can find, and helping others discover new information or their next favorite book. Ever since visiting Indonesia in 2019, Elizabeth has also been hoping to travel around the globe as much as possible, and spends her free time planning her next trip. She is excited to use her skills to help the Henderson County community!

Ali Wilson, Branch Assistant

Ali Wilson has worked in libraries for the last nine years, and is excited to join Henderson County Public Library as a full time library assistant at the Fletcher Library. Ali shared: "I moved here to be in the mountains after growing up in the flat state of Michigan, not realizing how many other Michiganders had the exact same idea. The most interesting thing about me is my wonderful dog and his crazy under-bite. Ask me to show you a picture of him sometime. Or don't, but be warned - I'll probably try to show you one anyway."

LIBRARY SEEKING VOLUNTEERS FOR THE GENEALOGY ROOM

Potential volunteers would need to have a strong interest in genealogy research and familiarity with basic genealogy practices and resources, including electronic resources.

What is your vision for Henderson County in 2045?

You are planning a trip with some of your friends and relatives. Some questions arise when planning this trip... How are we going to get there? What route are we going to take? Where are we going to eat and stay along the journey?

Planning a trip is similar to comprehensive planning. Planners are using resources and community input to better prepare, guide growth, and shape County policies for the future. The Henderson County Planning Department is currently developing its 2045 Comprehensive Plan. The plan projects how Henderson County will look in 25 years. We hope you will take our quick survey, telling us more about some advantages, concerns, and opportunities in Henderson County. Your survey responses will ultimately shape the plan's goals and vision looking forward. Please visit our website for additional information and a tentative schedule on how you can get involved. We are excited about this process and look forward to working with you.

SUMMER READING WRAP-UP 2021

This summer the library gave out more than 2,034 summer reading cards to preschoolers, elementary students, and teens. Some library users even logged their own reading through a new app called ReadSquared, made available through the State Library of North Carolina!

After a year of virtual programs, we were so excited to return to a summer of programs for our patrons inside and outside the library, with storytimes, crafts, and yes, even performers!

Virtual Programs: 26

In-Person Programs: 107

Total Program Attendance: 4,072

The library partnered with Smart Start, Henderson County Public Schools, Henderson County Parks and Recreation, Fletcher Parks and Recreation, Town of Mills River, and Historic Johnson Farm to bring SEVEN Kindergarten Readiness StoryWalks® to community centers across the county!

Summer Reading is not just for kids! This year the library distributed 2,200 Summer Reading cards for adults across all library locations, through library homebound services, and the Friends of the Library bookstore. Adults also participated online with ReadSquared. Thanks to the Friends of the Library for funding take and make craft kits and prizes for adults. Each library location held a drawing for a prize pack and a two lucky winners won a Samsung tablet and a ENO hammock kit.

Thank you to all our patrons, partners, and to the Friends of the Library for making it all happen. We couldn't have done it without your support. Join us next summer for a ton of underwater fun with Oceans of Possibilities!

Ryan, Teen Winner for Fletcher

Kennedi, Elementary Winner for Etowah

Luke, Teen Winner for Main

McLain, Elementary Winner for Main

Aidan, Preschool Winner for Fletcher

Jocelyn, Teen Winner for Green River

ART EXHIBIT Main Library, Oct-Dec 2021

The Art League of Henderson County will present a seasonal art exhibit on display from October through December.

Art displayed will be in various media and will feature Fall and Winter themes. Mixed media pieces will also be on display.

The Art League is comprised of artists working in different media varied skill sets, along with those wishing to support the arts within the community. New members are always welcome. Workshops and classes covering multiple art forms are offered to members and to the general public as well.

LOCAL AUTHOR VISITS AT THE MAIN LIBRARY

ROSE SENEHI

THU, SEP 23
2:00PM

A discussion of her latest novel, Falling Off A Cliff: The Story Of A Mountain Nurse. Two women, a generation apart and from two different worlds, are driven by a passion to heal. Will one have her innocence shattered and the other be forever haunted by an unanswered mystery?

RUTHIE ROSAUER

WED, OCT 6
2:00PM

A discussion of her latest book, Nursing Home 101: A Daughters Perspective. Ruthie and her sister found out from a hospital social worker that they had 24 hours to find a healthcare facility for their elderly mother. She presents the results of her search, experience, and research in her book.

TERRY ROBERTS

TUE, OCT 26
5:30PM

A discussion of his 2021 novel, My Mistress' Eyes are Raven Black. A young, pregnant Irish woman disappears from the Isolation Hospital on Ellis Island. Stephen Robbins, a specialist in finding missing persons, is assigned the case. Yet when he arrives at the isolation hospital, he discovers an inexplicable string of deaths and disappearances among immigrant patients... and a staff that seems to be hiding a chilling secret.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED
Register via the library's online calendar for these programs.

In this column we feature new titles at the library from local authors or books with a focus on Appalachia and the Southeast. Place any of these titles on hold through the online catalog or call the library for assistance.

My picks for fiction include Leah Weiss' new book, All the Little Hopes, a Nancy Drew historical mystery set in Hot Springs. For readers who've enjoyed Robert Morgan's books, Dot Jackson's 2006 novel Refuge is back in print and available as an eBook on the Libby app, or for more character-driven layered and literary multigenerational tales, try Night Came with Many Stars by Simon Van Booy. A former Charleston cop investigates a real-life mountain plane crash in the dark mystery series debut Graveyard Fields by Steven Tingle. Get lost in Pisgah National Forest in Stephanie Perkins' young adult thriller, The Woods are Always Watching, or follow two friends leaving their mountain home and family for the first time in Jeff Zentner's In the Wild Light.

We have several new books about departures, arrivals, and returning home. For a road novel through the mountains and the upstate, pick up the new Hub City Press title The Blue Line Down by Maris Lawyer. For a Great Migration story, see M Shelly Conner's Everyman. A haunted plantation is the setting of LaTanya McQueen's gothic horror novel When the Reckoning Comes, and Asheville author Terry Roberts has a new thriller about immigrants in My Mistress' Eyes are Raven Black. For something completely different, our heroes defend Atlanta in the second book in Kit Rocha's Mercenary Librarians post-apocalyptic romance series, The Devil You Know.

In lighter reads, the Jane Doe Book Club series continues with Reading Between the Crimes by Kate Young, and the second book in the Bourbon Tour Mysteries is out, 100 Proof Murder by Mary Ellis. Charleston society is the subject of In Polite Company by Gervais Hagerty, while Open Your Heart by Cheris Hodges is a pulpy romance with a Charleston setting. For a book that will check a lot of boxes for readers of Christian historical romance, an Alabama school teacher meets a Cajun fisherman in Under the Bayou Moon by Valerie Fraser Luesse.

For nonfiction, there is a new cookbook from Top Chef winner Kelsey Barnard Clark called Southern Grit: 100+ Down-Home Recipes for the Modern Cook. An interesting narrative nonfiction read would be The Quiet Zone: Unraveling the Mystery of a Town Suspended in Silence by Stephen Kurczyk, about the radio, wifi, and cellular signal dead zone of Green Bank, West Virginia.

In forthcoming books releasing in September or October, we will have a new novel from award winning East Tennessee author Richard Powers called Bewilderment. North Carolina author Wiley Cash has a novel about a mysterious plane crash and a small town sheriff in When Ghosts Come Home. Denise Hunter launches a new clean Appalachian romance series called Riverbend Gap, and we will have a book about Southern living from essayist Margaret Renkl called Graceland, At Last: Notes on Hope and Heartache from the American South.

Thanks for reading!

AVAILABLE FROM HOME THROUGH DECEMBER 2021

Remote access to Ancestry.com Library Edition has been extended through December 2021. This means anyone with a library card can continue to use this resource at home or anywhere with an internet connection. Just sign on through the link on the library's website with your library card number and PIN.

Find Ancestry.com Library Edition in two places on the Henderson County Public Library website. Navigate to the purple "Research" tab, select the "Genealogy and Local History" link and then choose the blue "Genealogy" tab. Ancestry.com Library Edition is the first resource listed on the page. You can also go directly to Ancestry from the "Resources A-Z" link under the "Research" tab. Scroll down the list until you find Ancestry.com Library Edition.

Ancestry.com Library Edition is one of the most popular resources for genealogical research. Included in its expansive collection of data are census, immigration, and military records. It can be searched easily and results can be printed out, emailed or saved to a home computer. Patrons doing genealogy research are also encouraged to look through the Genealogy and Local History page to see what other resources the library has to offer.

- Mark Burdette, Reference & Special Collections Librarian

PAWS FOR READING

Can reading be a little ruff?
It's time to "PAWS" for Reading!

- Children can sign-up to read with one of our furry friends from the Alliance of Therapy Dogs and Canine Therapy Partners WNC! Each session is 15 minutes and sign-up is simple: just call or visit the Youth Services Desk at the Main Library to get started. Sessions will take place the second Saturday of each month: Sep. 11, Oct. 9, Nov. 13, Dec. 11.

TREAT STREET!

- Look for the HCPL booth on Sunday, Oct. 31 from 4-7pm in Downtown Hendersonville! Get ready for an evening of treats, fun, and spooktacular surprises that can only be found on Main Street.

TEEN ANIME CLUB

Do you like reading manga? Do you love watching anime?
Did you know we have a Teen Anime Club for teens just like you?
Come share in the love of Japanese animation and comics with us!

Join us as we watch anime, discuss fandom, create art, eat yummy snacks, and MORE! Teen Anime Club is intended for teens from grades 6-12. We will meet in the Main Library Kaplan Auditorium on Thursday, Sep. 30 and Oct. 28 at 4pm and then have a holiday party on Saturday, Nov. 13 at 12pm.

HENDERSONVILLE HIGH SCHOOL YEARBOOKS NEEDED FOR DIGITIZATION PROJECT

The library has resumed partnering with the Digital Heritage Center in Chapel Hill to digitize local high school yearbooks.

The first batch of yearbooks the library sent to Chapel Hill contained an incomplete run of Hendersonville High School yearbooks.

The library would like to address that shortcoming and is asking anyone with specific Hendersonville High School yearbooks to donate them to the library so they can be scanned and added to Digital Heritage Center's website.

HS Hendersonville High School

We are looking for the years 1950, 1952, 1954, 1955, 1958, 1959, and 1964 through 1971. Yearbooks will be cataloged and added to the library's collection of school annuals once they are scanned.

Anyone interested should contact Mark Burdette.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY: HALF-PRICE BOOKS; NEW VIDEOS

The Friends provide vital financial support to the library system. We raise money through sales at our bookstore, branch libraries, and online.

If you would like great bargains on books in excellent condition, visit our sales table at the front of the store. Our bookstore is at 1940 Spartanburg Hwy (next to Dollar General) in HVL and is open Tues., Thurs., and Sat., 12-4 p.m. Members get a 10% discount. (You can join or renew your membership at the store).

We also invite you to see three recent videos:

- *The Friends at the Farmers Market*
- *An interview with a longtime volunteer*
- *A tour of our bookstore*

You may be amazed at how large the bookstore is, and you will meet one of our great volunteers.
